

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Go Greek at the 56th Annual St. Demetrios Greek Festival!

Seattle, WA — A tradition since 1960, the St. Demetrios Greek Festival returns this year, October 7, 8 and 9 at St. Demetrios Greek Orthodox Church in Seattle's Montlake neighborhood.

Traditional Greek food, music, dancing and culture will be in abundance when the grounds of St. Demetrios Church, located at 2100 Boyer Avenue East, transform into a Greek paradise.

Visitors will have plenty of time to enjoy all that the Greek Festival has to offer this year, with hours of operation from noon—9pm on Friday, October 7th; 10am—9pm on Saturday, October 8th and noon—7pm on Sunday, October 9th. Seattle's Greek Festival remains one of the few that still offers free admission and parking, with free shuttle service offered from both the Seattle Prep Parking Garage and Montlake Elementary School Playground on Saturday and Sunday during festival hours. Bike racks will also be available all weekend.

Come for the food and stay for the entertainment! Traditional Greek food will include lamb sandwiches, gyros, calamari, souvlaki, spanakopita, soups, salads and more, plus Greek desserts and pastries—all homemade and freshly prepared by members of St. Demetrios Church. Visitors may also enjoy a seated meal in the Dining Hall, from noon—8pm on Friday and Saturday and noon—7pm on Sunday.

Greek wine tasting will be available all weekend, and Greek beer and wine will also be served in our Taverna bars, which features big screen TVs that will show all of the weekend's major football, baseball and soccer games. Rain or shine, under the giant white tent at the Greek Festival will be THE place to cheer on your favorite local team.

The award-winning St. Demetrios Greek Dance Groups will provide entertainment for visitors throughout the weekend, with dancers ranging in age from 5-25+ years old. Live Greek music from Taki and the Mad Greeks will also be featured on the main stage. In addition, church tours will be offered for those wishing to view St. Demetrios' beautiful sanctuary and learn more about the Orthodox faith.

Be sure to save time for shopping! The Greek Festival offers authentic Greek imports, food and deli staples and packaged pastries as well as bargain hunting in the This n' That Shop. There is even a children's area featuring games, face painting and prizes.

The Greek Festival is staffed by volunteers from the St. Demetrios community, with all proceeds once again benefitting St. Demetrios' ministries and community outreach. For more information please visit: www.SeattleGreekFestival.com and for up-to-the-minute news and updates like us on Facebook, <http://www.facebook.com/StDemetriosGreekFestival>.

###

Press Contact: Katherine Dikeakos |Phone: (206) 349-8342 | Email: festival@saintdemetrios.com
St. Demetrios Greek Orthodox Church | 2100 Boyer Avenue East | Seattle, WA 98112